

WEST KENTUCKY COMMUNITY AND TECHNICAL COLLEGE

STRATEGIES FOR ACADEMIC SUCCESS (ALLIED HEALTH STUDENTS)

GE 101 (Web-Enhanced)

Course Description: This 3-hour course is designed for pre-program and first-year allied health students who are experiencing academic difficulty, or who are new to the allied health programs. Basic subject areas covered include personal organization/time management, study skills, how to read the textbooks, dimensional analysis math, test-taking strategies, research and writing skills, communicating with faculty and fellow students, student stress, and role changes.*

FALL 2006 MONDAY 2:00 PM – 4:50 PM
ALLIED HEALTH BUILDING, ROOM E107
FACULTY: CONNIE HEFLIN & CLAUDIA STOFFEL

CALL THE NURSING PROGRAM (534-3466) FOR MORE INFORMATION.